Social and Personal

THE Rev. and Mrs. Richard Rathbone Graham have issued invitations for the marriage of their niece, Miss May Hartley Carmichael, to Robert Archer Hobson. The wedding will take place in St. Paul's church, this city, at half-after 5 o'clock Wednesday evening, April 26, and will be a very fashionable affair. Miss Carmichael is a daughter of the late Rev. John Carmichael, who was for a number of years rector of St. Paul's church, in Richmond, and Mr. Hobson is a son of Mrs. Edwin Hobson, of this city. A great many guests from a distance will come to Richmond to attend the wedding, and a number of entertainments for the bride-elect will precede the ceremony.

Attend Easter Dances. Miss Lols Richardson and Miss Virginia Allen will go to Lexington Easter week to attend the dances given at the Virginia Military Institute and Washington and Lee University. A number of Richmond girls go to Lexington every year for the dances, which are always very smart functions indeed.

Colston—Shepherd. A beautiful wedding was solemnized at "Forest Hill," the home of the bride, near Wadsworth, Va., on Thursday afternoon of last week at half-past 2 o'clock, when Miss Mary Page Shepherd was married to William Colston. Rev. Julian Broadus, D. D., assisted by Rev. J. M. Mason, of Lexington, Va., performed the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of white satin, which she carried down the aisle.

roses. Her tulle veil was also arranged with roses, and her only ornament was an ancestral pin worn by her great-grandmother on a like occasion a century ago. The bridesmaids—Misses Lucy Park Shepherd, sister of the bride, and Lillian Mesmer—wore frocks of white and carried bouquets of pink flowers. Little Misses Ruth and Reva Berlin wore flower girls, and wore long frocks and carried baskets of pink buds. George Colston and Wilmer Whitte were groomsmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Colston left at once for a Northern honeymoon. For a week before the wedding a large house party had been entertained at the home of the bride, and a great many affairs were done in honor of the bride.

Meeting This Afternoon. The Graduate Nurses' Club of Richmond will hold its annual meeting this afternoon in the nurses' home, Retreat for the Sick, at 5 o'clock. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected and other business of importance to be transacted. Nurses not members of the society are invited to be present.

Go to Lynchburg and Sweetbriar. Miss Mary Johnston and her sister, Miss Eloise Johnston, leave to-day for Lynchburg, Va., where they will be guests of Mrs. John H. Lewis, 609 Court Street, that city.

To-night Miss Johnston, by invitation of the Equal Suffrage League of Lynchburg, will give an address in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association. Senator Aubrey Stride, of Amherst, introducing her. To-morrow Miss Johnston will talk before the literary societies of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, in the Hill City. To-morrow night she and Miss Eloise will leave Lynchburg for Sweetbriar, where they have been asked to meet the faculty and students.

Miss Johnston will talk before the Council of Jewish Women Tuesday afternoon in the Sabbath school room of Beth Ahabah was on "The Woman Movement" and was a great success.

She and Miss Adele Clark went yesterday to the Ashland, in response to an invitation from the Young Women's Club there, for Miss Johnston to speak before its members.

Home Wedding. The home of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Mosby, in Waynesboro, Va., was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday morning, when Miss Nellie Paul was married to Dr. Carl Crawford Bowman.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. D. K. Walthall in the presence of the immediate family. Following the ceremony a breakfast was served, the decorations being entirely in pink and white.

The bride wore a tailored suit of gray cloth. She was given away by her brother, Dr. Ernest Mosby, and attended by her little niece, Miss Katherine Bell Mosby, who acted as ring-bearer. Dr. H. B. Spencer, of Staunton, was best man.

Relatives from a distance were Miss Forrest Bell, of Montgomery, Ala.; Mrs. A. H. Clarke, of Welch, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. John W. McComb, of Richmond; Otis Bowman, of Madison, Va.; and John Bowman, of V. P. I.

After a Southern tour, Dr. and Mrs. Bowman will reside in Waynesboro, Va.

Leaves Next Week. Miss Lucile Massey will leave town next week to be the guest of Miss Jane Stanfield in Atlanta, Ga., for the Kappa Delta convention, which meets in that city this month. Miss Stanfield will entertain in honor of her guest.

Engagement Announced. An important wedding announcement of interest to society here was made in Baltimore yesterday, when the engagement of Miss Jane Stanfield to Whitwell Hill Uphart, of Maryland, was announced.

Miss Uphart is the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John R. Uphart, and belongs to families of distinction in Maryland and Virginia. She is a noted horsewoman and has frequently ridden in horse shows in Baltimore and Virginia.

Mr. Uphart is a son of the late Whitwell H. Uphart, of Richmond, and for several years past has made his home in Baltimore. He was educated at the Virginia Military Institute and the University of Virginia.

Owing to the death of Carter W. Branch, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Branch have recalled the invitation for the marriage of their daughter, Mary Cooke, and Thomas Burton Sheed, which was to have taken place on the evening of Wednesday, April 19, in St. Paul's church. The ceremony will take place very soon in the presence of the immediate family at the same hour in the home of Mr. Branch's sister, Mrs. George B. McAdams, 911 West Franklin Street.

Visiting in Birmingham. Miss Elizabeth Johnston, who returned last week from a two months' stay in the Bermudas, left this week to visit relatives in Birmingham, Ala. Miss Johnston will remain in the South almost within the time of her leaving here with her sisters to go abroad in June. They will go directly to Holland and spend some time in the south of France and England, returning to Virginia late in September.

Guest of Mrs. Lewis. Miss Martha Harrison, daughter of Mrs. Russell B. Harrison, of Washington, is the guest of Judge and Mrs. L. L. Lewis, on West Franklin Street. Miss Harrison has been a guest of Miss Sarah Hamilton, in Petersburg, some time past and will return to her home in Washington Saturday.

Y. W. C. A. Notes. The regular entertainment given every three weeks by the Neighborhood Club of the Young Women's Christian Association gymnasium will be given in the gymnasium, Fourth and Cary Streets, to-night and to-morrow night. These affairs are followed by music and dancing and have proved a most agreeable manner in which to entertain the members and their friends. A very interesting program, in which each gymnasium class will take part, has been prepared, and the Covenant orchestra will furnish music for the occasion. All interested are cordially invited to be present.

The committee in charge includes Miss Katherine Hawes, chairman; Mrs. Chiles Forrell, Mrs. V. A. Crenshaw, Mrs. J. T. Robinson, Miss Katherine Ricks and Miss Pauline Powers.

The gymnasium department will also have charge of the vespers service at the association rooms, 711 East Franklin Street, Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Dr. Cecil will give a very interesting program has been arranged, which includes instrumental music.

HEAD WAS SCALY HAIR ALL CAME OUT

And Baby's Face Broke Out in Red Bumps. Spread on Hands and Arms. Got Worse All the Time.

Mother Says, "I Don't Think Any-thing Else Would Have Cured Him Except Cuticura."

"When my first baby was six months old he broke out on his head with little bumps. The bumps would dry up and leave a scale. Then it would break out again and it spread all over his head. All the hair came out and his face broke out in red bumps and it kept spreading over his hands and arms. I bought several boxes of ointment, gave him blood medicine, and had two doctors treat him, but he got worse all the time. He had it about six months when a friend told me about Cuticura. I sent and got a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. In three days after using them he began to improve. He began to take long naps and sleep and he never had any more of the kind. His hair came out in little curls and all over his head. I don't think anything else would have cured him except Cuticura."

"I have bought Cuticura Ointment and Soap several times since to use for cuts and cure what I put them on. Cuticura Soap is the best that I have ever used for toilet purposes. (Signed) Mrs. F. E. Harmon, R. F. D. 2, Atoka, Tenn., Sept. 10, 1910. Sold everywhere. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole props., 139 Columbus Ave., Boston. Walker—Willis. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Buena Vista, Va., April 6.—There was a beautiful home wedding this evening, the participants being Miss Julia Gordon Willis, of this city, and Lewis Meriwether Walker, of Danville, who were married in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The home of the bride, on Seminary Hill, was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being pink and green. While the guests were assembling Miss Grace Lee, of Irvington, sang "Oh, Perfect Love." Miss Grace Gleske, of Danville, played the violin. The ceremony was followed by the playing of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Bessie Bennett Brower, of Gainesville, the bride party entered in the following order: The groom, Lewis Meriwether Walker, with his best man, Fielding Walker, of Danville, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Nannie Thomas Twyman, of Charlottesville, gowned in pink. The bride, wearing a gown of hand-some ivory white crepe meteor, trimmed in point DeVenise lace and pearls, with tulle veil caught with fringe blossoms and carrying a show-er bouquet of lilies of the valley, entered last. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Charles Manley, pastor of the Lexington Baptist church. During the ceremony Miss Gleske played on the violin. She was accompanied by Miss Brower on the piano. After the ceremony a short reception was held, and Mr. and Mrs. Walker left on the night train for the Northern cities. Mrs. Walker's going-away gown was of tan cloth, with white gloves to match.

Mrs. Walker is the eldest daughter of the late Rev. John Milton Willis, and is very popular in social circles. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fielding Walker, of Danville, and is a prominent young business man of that city.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fielding Walker, of Danville; Misses Annie and Agnes Walker, of Danville; F. L. Walker, Jr., of South Boston; Miss Grace Gleske, of Danville; Miss Bessie Brower, of Gainesville; S. M. Lacy, of Richmond; Miss Mary E. Walker, of Louisville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Seldon Brock, of Roanoke; M. G. Willis, of Fredericksburg, and R. H. Willis, of Roanoke.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Lynchburg, Va., April 6.—An unusually pretty wedding took place yesterday evening at the Court Street Methodist church, when Miss Nannie Duval Glass was wedded to Edward Howard Mayfield, the celebrant being the pastor, the Rev. Richard H. Bennett, D. D. The church was beautifully decorated for the event. The orchestra was banked with noted palms and ferns, in front of which were twenty-three candles, indicating the age of the bride.

The ushers were Charles G. Craddock, Dexter Otey, John A. Faulkner, Robert Glass, Powell P. Glass, Preston Tye and George Mahon and Colonel James A. Scott.

Mrs. Preston Tyree, a sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and Miss Elizabeth Glass, another sister, was the maid of honor. Lawrence Pierce was the best man, and little Misses Bonnet Mayfield, Susie Glass and Virginia Tyree were the flower girls. The bride was given away by her father.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Glass, her father being superintendent of the public school system of the city, and one of the foremost educators of the State, and she is a niece of Congressman Carter Glass. The groom is the business secretary of the Lynchburg Chamber of Commerce, having resided in Philadelphia and Richmond prior to coming to Lynchburg, several years ago.

After a trip to Washington, Philadelphia and New York City and up the Hudson River, Mr. and Mrs. Mayfield will be at home to their friends in Lynchburg, after April 15.

TO HEAR MOTIONS IN BANK CASES

Argument Will Be Made With Reference to Indictments Against Bishop.

TWO AGED RESIDENTS DEAD

Movement Started for Battlefield Park—Other Petersburg News.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., April 6.

As has been stated, the trials of the several indictments in the Appomattox Trust Company cases have been continued to the April term of the Hustings Court, which begins on the 20th instant. The court, however, will meet to-morrow, to hear and decide some preliminary motions, to be submitted and argued in reference to indictments against Carter F. Bishop.

Two Aged Residents Dead. Miss Martha E. Watkins died this morning about 8:30 o'clock at the residence of her niece, Miss Mollie McEnery, on Friend Street, in her ninety-eighth year. She was the oldest member of Tabb Street Presbyterian church, and probably the oldest resident of Petersburg. Miss Watkins was born on January 5, 1814, at "Wales," the home of her parents, Captain Edward E. and Mrs. Nancy Briggs Watkins, in Dinwiddie county. She had lived in Petersburg a great number of years. Due to the infirmities of age, she had rapidly failed during the past few weeks, and this morning passed quietly away, as though falling into gentle slumber. The funeral will take place from the residence Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

William A. Fenn, another old and greatly respected citizen, died last evening at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles E. Kirkham, on Halifax Street, after a long illness. He was seventy-three years old, was a native of Petersburg, and had lived in the city all of his life. For a great many years he was engaged in the printing and book-binding business as a member of the firm of Fenn & Owen, but retired some years ago. He never married, and is survived by his sister, Mrs. Charles E. Kirkham and Mrs. D. V. Watkins, both of this city. He was a man of high character and universally esteemed.

Exciting Runaway. A fine pair of mules belonging to Roland Pegram, a colored farmer of Prince George, took fright and ran away on Sycamore Street about 3 o'clock this afternoon. Pegram had just delivered a load of peanuts, and no one was in the wagon at the time. As the mules ran up the street they collided with and broke a buggy belonging to R. R. Allen. Mr. Allen's daughter, who was in the buggy, was thrown out and received some cuts and bruises, but was not seriously hurt. Farther up the street the mules ran into a heavy dumping cart. One of the animals was on the cart, and fell off badly injured. The driver of the cart escaped injury by jumping.

A movement has been started for the establishment of a battlefield park at Petersburg, which promises success. Committees have been appointed by the C. Travelers' Protective Association; the Chamber of Commerce, the Common Council and the Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans to take the matter in hand and push it. These committees will confer together and formulate plans of procedure. One of the most important of these plans, it is understood, will be to get in communication with the posts of the Grand Army of the Republic and seek to interest them in the movement, and to induce them to have the matter brought before Congress. The individuals who visited the Petersburg battlefields have expressed themselves in favor of the establishment of a park, but no formal action has ever been taken. Troops from nearly every northern State fought around Petersburg, and many of them died here. To get the Grand Army soldiers interested actively, it is believed, will result in success. Several of the Northern States have already erected handsome monuments to their dead soldiers here.

The Petersburg baseball team will play games to-morrow and Saturday with the Toronto team, of the Eastern League. Next week the Petersburg boys will play two games each with the Altoona (Pennsylvania) and the Trenton (New Jersey) teams. Manager Bush is gradually perfecting his team, choosing some who do not come fully up to the mark of efficiency, signing and trying others, and retaining those who give satisfaction.
